Dubai's More Café opened its second outlet in Oman, at The Wave, Muscat's The Walk mall on Thursday.

Ajit Singh, group general manager of Asha Enterprises, said that More Café's commitment to the highest standards of quality and its distinctive food and surroundings gives it an advantage in Muscat's highly competitive casual dining market.

"The café offers customers a relaxed environment where they can choose from an extensive menu, served in a way that is uniquely more," Singh said.

"As one of Dubai's leading café chains and a well-respected brand, we are offering quality food that blends excellent service with value pricing. The new outlet has both indoor and outdoor seating with impressive views of The Walk and its beautiful surroundings, and is a per-

"We are sure that the outlet at The Walk mall will be equally popular among the local community. The community table, free Wi-Fi and the latest business publications make it the perfect location to hold weekly office meetings."

Created by the café's own international chefs, the menu has a range of soups, salads, sandwiches, risotto and pasta dishes, as well as an array of desserts, pastries and drinks.

More Café uses the freshest ingredients, roasts its own coffees and bakes its own breads and pastries.

The café also has an assortment of jams, dressings, chutneys and ice creams on their menu, ensuring the best quality from source to plate. These items can also be purchased at their store along with its other specialities such as chocolate truffles, cookies and pralines.
