Meal times are fantastic family occasions. But let's face it: eating out with the family can turn into a dinner-time demolition derby, which is why we chose More Café at Festival City as this year's winner. Great for staving off dining squabbles, More's 'something for everyone' menu (including a separate range for little people), top-notch grub and abundance of crayons and high chairs has long made it a family favourite. The Festival City branch gets our vote for its spacious terrace and view of the marina. For the category's two highly commended restaurants we chose Benihana and Carluccio's – both have great kid-friendly fare as well as ever-so-patient staff.
